Elder Rights are Important. Financial Counsellors can help.

Financial Counsellors can help clients by:

- Keeping you safe and connected to services
- Advising you on your financial rights and responsibilities
- Assisting you with grant applications and check all entitlements you may have
- Referring you to other social and community services, including legal, emergency relief or housing services
- Assisting you with managing your budget and your money
- Looking at other ways you can manage your debts
- Advocating on your behalf with your bank and utility providers
- Discussing financial hardship agreements and payment plans
